

Regular Member

A physician, scientist or industry (community) member who satisfies the requirements of good character and who has demonstrated an interest in cardiovascular magnetic resonance. All regular members have the right to hold office and vote providing that dues are paid and current.